

The High Commission of India in Kigali & Rwanda-India Entrepreneurship Development Centre, Kigali Present

A Business Symposium on Furthering Rwanda's Economic Journey

Rwanda is at a cusp. It is ready to take the big leap and break the glass ceiling. The ethos, initiatives and policies of the government is paving ways for a country fit for the new world order. The borderless world, where geography has become history, allows free flowing exchange of ideas, knowledge, technology, skill and investments.

This Symposium is aimed at bringing out the thoughts and practices that could be deployed in the journey of Rwanda. It is conceived to bring a focused approach to the exchange between Rwanda and India at G2G, F2F and M2M level. It is planned to bring the people with common interest to start working towards a more aligned and outcome oriented relationships between the two countries.

The 1st Symposium is focused on Fintech and Healthcare sectors. Both are core to the development of Rwanda as destination for entrepreneurs from Africa as well as around the world. The establishment of institutions like KIFC and Kigali Innovation City is paving way for exciting times ahead.
